PRESIDENT WILL TAKE STRONG HAND OVER MAKING OF PLATFORM

GOVERNOR ALLEN OF KANSAS WILL NOMINATE WOOD

Expected Candidate To Make Nominating Speech.

WOOD CLAN ASTIR

Woover Faction To Put Out Newspaper In His Behalf.

Chicago, May 29.—Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas, who himself is expected to be a candidate, will make the nominating speech for General Wood at the Republican national convention, it was announced here today. The general's nomination will be seconded from Colorado by C. J. Moynahan of Montrose.

Governor Allen will pay tribute to General Wood as a "native son" of Kansas, despite the fact that the general is a New Englander, born and bred. General Wood is a citizen of the state of Kansas by a special act of the legislature.

He commanded the 89th division of the national army (Kansas troops) until receipt of overseas orders. He was removed from command on the eve of sailing.

There has been a general marshalling of the Wood forces in Chicago for the last 24 hours. Whether by accident or in response to definite orders, most of the leaders in the Wood movement have begun to drift in and it is expected that there will be a conference here tomorrow or Monday.

SOMETHING TO HAPPEN
There is a distinct feeling and many rumors along "presidential row" that something is going to happen in the Wood camp.

The patched up peace between Frank Hitchcock the "political adviser" and Colonel William Cooper Proctor, the generalissimo of the campaign which was affected at New York some weeks ago, is reported to have about played itself out.

Hitchcock arrived in Chicago yesterday. He did not, however, visit Wood headquarters in the same hotel. He even asked reporters where the headquarters were located. Hitchcock would not comment directly on the reported break, saying with his usual suavity that he "never talked for publication." The story was denied, however, at the Wood camp.

EXPECT MANAGER
George H. Moses, manager of the southern division of the Wood movement, is expected at Wood headquarters here any day.

Other lieutenants are arriving and the assemblage of Wood handlers is the chief morsel of gossip along the row.

The Hoover movement in Chicago, which has been sliding quietly along in spacious quarters on "presidential row" is to be enlivened considerably, it was announced today, with the arrival of a new York contingent of Hoover supporters. These will be headed by George Barr Baker, one of Hoover's lieutenants in the relief work. Plans are being rushed rapidly for the publication in a "Hoover Herald." It is to be an eight-page newspaper, devoted exclusively to the interests of the former food administrator. It will be edited by James Keeley, former editor of a number of big Chicago dailies.

CLOTHIERS CHARGED WITH PROFITEERING

Syracuse, N. Y., May 29.—Weed's, Inc., Binghamton clothiers, tried in United States court here under Justice Martin T. Manton, were found guilty on all of eight counts in a federal indictment charging them with profiteering. The court imposed a fine of $31,000 upon the firm. Six counts covered sales actually made and a fine of $5,000 was imposed for each of them. The charges in these counts were as follows: The sale of a suit of clothes costing $20 for $40; sale of a suit costing $12.10 for $40; sale of another suit for $45, the cost price being fixed at $23.50; sale of a suit costing $17.82 for $45; sale of a suit of clothes for $29.50, the cost price of the suit having been $11.75; sale of a suit costing $23.25 to a millionaire for $60.

Wilson Endorses Planks of Virginia Democratic Party.

IN PERFECT ACCORD

Agitation For Indiscriminate Bonus Is Deplored.

Washington, May 29.—In a letter made public at the White House, President Wilson's idea of the campaign issues is outlined. The letter expresses the president's "full accord" with the sentiments contained in the platform recently adopted by the Virginia Democratic convention.

The league of nations plank, which declared for ratification of the treaty of Versailles "without reservations which would impair its essential integrity," was particularly commended by the president. He also singled out for praise the platform's declarations on finance and reconstruction, which included a general proposal to revise tax laws and deplored agitation for "an indiscriminate bonus" for soldiers of the great war.

The letter was addressed to Senator Glass of Virginia, who drafted the state platform, and its publication from the White House generally was regarded as forecasting what the president and his supporters would expect to be written into the party's national platform at San Francisco. The national platform was not mentioned directly by the president, though he wrote that the Virginia Democrats had "set forth the attitude of the party" on the league of nations and other important issues.

The league plank occupies a large place in the Virginia platform, embracing a declaration "for a league of nations" and praising "the exceptional achievement at Paris involved in the adoption of a league and treaty so near akin to American ideals." The president is praised for "steadfastly standing for the covenant agreed to," and the Republican reservations and peace resolution are condemned.

Some of the other features of the Virginia platform are:

A declaration for an efficient merchant marine with sale to American citizens, for operation under the American flag, of all merchant vessels acquired by the government during the war.

Condemnation of the Republican congress for "vain and extravagant investigations, costing $2,000,000, revealing nothing beyond the incapacity of the Republican politicians to cope with the gravest problems."

A declaration that neither labor nor capital should at any time "take action that will jeopardize the public welfare," and that strikes and lockouts should be supplanted by some method of amicable settlement.

HOUSE FAILS TO GET TWO-THIRDS VOTE TO OVERRIDE VETO

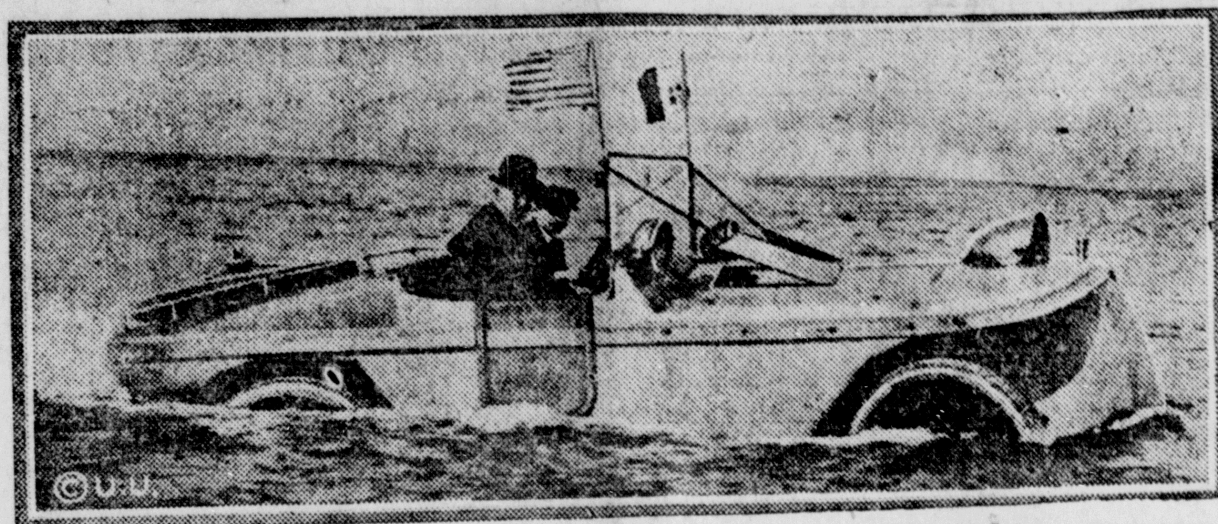

Washington, May 29.—The house failed to override President Wilson's veto of the Knox resolution declaring the state of war with Germany to be at an end. The vote was 219 to 152, failing to secure the necessary two-thirds to override the veto. Two Republicans voted to sustain the president's veto, while 17 Democrats joined the Republican majority in an effort to override it. The Democrats voting to override the veto included Representatives Ashbrook and Sherwood of Ohio.

The president's position was assailed by Republicans and defended by Democrats. Attacking the Republican leadership of congress, Representative Connally, Democrat, Texas, challenged the party in control to present a straight-out resolution for repeal of all wartime legislation, and promised Democratic support in an effort to pass it in the event of a presidential veto.

Declaring that passage of the Knox resolution would fix the date for repeal of wartime laws, Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, came back with a challenge to the Texas member to give proof of his ability to "deliver Democratic help," but the answer was lost in a howl from both sides of the chamber.

Later, Mr. Connally, without comment, threw into the house hopper a joint resolution providing for repeal of every bit of wartime legislation, effective on the date of the resolution's passage. Soon after, Representative Ackerman, Republican, New Jersey, presented a similar resolution.

BOOM OF M'ADOO GETS AIRING IN CAMPAIGN PROBE

Senate Committee Seeks Its Financial Sources.

WITNESSES QUIZZED

Daugherty Recalled To Answer Questions By Committee.

Washington, May 29.—The financial sources of the "invisible" McAdoo boom, as it is described by Chairman Kenyon, held the attention of the senate committee investigating expenditures in the pre-convention presidential campaigns.

Angus McLean of North Carolina, a director of the war finance corporation, denied that he "was a sort of southern manager for Mr. McAdoo's candidacy," but later related a conversation he had with the former treasury secretary, which, he said, was concluded with a statement by Mr. McAdoo that "a man could decline," a presidential nomination if tendered him.

Louis J. Lang, reporter for the New York American, was questioned closely as to newspaper articles which he had written, alleging that a $5,000,000 fund had been underwritten for a McAdoo campaign. He refused to disclose the names of his informants, but said "members of the Democratic national committee" corroborated the stories. Chairman Kenyon announced the committee had summoned others in connection with this branch of the inquiry.

Mr. McLean's testimony disclosed attempts of Mr. McAdoo's friends in New York to get together upon campaign efforts, notwithstanding the injunction of their principal.

Harry M. Daugherty, campaign manager for Senator Harding, Republican, Ohio, was recalled. Questioned by Senator Reed, the witness said two Ohio newspapers, the State Journal and the Columbus Dispatch, had supported Senator Harding at first, but later had supported General Wood. Senator Reed sought an explanation. "I would be willing to go this far," Mr. Daugherty said. "There was a very active campaign made around Columbus for General Wood." Daugherty added there was a very expensive campaign of advertising in Ohio for General Wood, "but we have no complaint about it."

A long list of witnesses has been summoned to throw further light on the candidacies of Palmer, McAdoo and Johnson. It is alleged that liquor was sold openly in Pennsylvania during the primary campaign; that a group of wealthy men undertook to underwrite the Democratic national campaign to the extent of $10,000,000, provided the national Democratic organization would drop Palmer and support McAdoo for the Democratic nomination, and that large sums of money were spent in the California contest.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Goodyear Dividend.
Akron, O., May 29.—F. A. Seiberling, president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, announced that directors had declared a stock dividend of 150 per cent, payable to common stockholders of record June 14. The dividend totals $31,133,250.

Latham Not a Candidate.
Sandusky, O., May 29.—State Senator Thomas Latham of Monroeville, representing the Thirtieth district, announced that he positively would not be a candidate for re-election this fall. Press of other business was assigned as his reason.

Humane Officers Elect.
Marietta, O., May 29.—Frank L. Baldwin, Youngstown, was re-elected president of the Ohio Federation of Human Societies at the closing session of its annual convention, Lloyd Smith, Piqua, was re-elected secretary.

"The Siren," a motor car-boat now on exhibition at Atlantic City N. J. is a fully equipped motor car capable of making 60 miles an hour on land and when the driver wishes it can be driven into any stream or body of water. A clutch throws the power off the wheels and starts a propeller in the rear of the car-or boat and it is then capable of a speed of 20 knots an hour. It has doors on each side but when used as a boat, it is absolutely water-tight. The makers are now working on limousine and sedan models.

SUGAR EMBARGO IS RECOMMENDED WITH AMENDMENT ADDED

Favorable Report Ordered On McNary Measure.

Washington, May 29.—By a vote of 3 to 2 the senate agriculture committee ordered a favorable report on the McNary bill, providing for an export embargo on sugar. Those supporting the bill were Senators McNary of Oregon, Capper of Kansas, Kenyon of Iowa and Norris of Nebraska, Republicans, and Harrison of Mississippi and Kendrick of Wyoming, Democrats. Senators Smith of Georgia, Smith of South Carolina and Ransdell of Louisiana opposed it. Before taking final action the committee amended the measure so that it would not affect sugar sent to the United States by foreign countries or their nationals to be refined. Early senate consideration of the bill is planned by Senator McNary.

Favorable report was ordered by the senate interstate commerce committee on the Poindexter bill, designed to prevent interruption of transportation by strikes of railroad employees. The committee amended the measure by attaching provisions similar to the anti-strike clauses eliminated from the railroad reorganization bill after labor leaders had made strong protests.

The bill as reported would make a felony of any proven intent to obstruct or prevent the movement of commodities in interstate commerce by persuading persons to quit work or by destroying property, and would provide for the punishment of persons who, through violence or threats, prevent employees from continuing work. The anti-strike provision of the railroad bill as added to the Poindexter measure would prohibit two or more persons from conspiring to bring about a strike that would tie up interstate commerce.

SHIPPERS WARNED BY COMMISSION TO AID IN CONGESTION

Washington, May 29.—Shippers were warned by the interstate commerce commission that they must cooperate with the railroads and the government in breaking the freight jam. The notice was served in the form of an order directing five railroads entering Galveston immediately to unload 2,700 cars of grain held in the yards there and to restore the cars to service.

The commission's action also gave indication that shippers who order cars will be required to load them promptly and that no delay will be tolerated on the part of the shipper after the cars once are made available to him. Railroads also have complained that the holding of cars was not uncommon, adding to the congestion in terminals.

Since the government turned the roads back to private control, three months ago, the stronger companies have placed orders for $150,000,000 worth of new equipment. The total equipment needs of the roads are estimated by the Association of Railway Executives at $610,000,000 for 1920, and additions and betterments are estimated to require expenditures of approximately $400,000,000 additional.

UNION LABOR TO FIGHT ALLEGED CAPITOL SCHEME

Raise Gigantic Fund For Defense Of Trade Unions.

"OPEN SHOP" TALKED

Claim Well Laid Conspiracy To Defeat Labor Unions.

Washington, May 29.—Union labor is raising a gigantic defense fund to fight what is claimed is a nation wide campaign by big employers to smash the trade union movement.

The International Association of Machinists is raising a fund of $4,200,000 a year to support a defense program by assessing each of its 350,000 members $1 a month and other international organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor are said to be levying a like amount.

Reports received by the machinists and other international unions show chambers of commerce and other business men's organizations in the industrial centers working to spread "open shop" propaganda and to force a "lockout" of union men. They are also, it is said, banded together to fight collective bargaining.

Life And Death Struggle.
Labor leaders here say the beginning of a "life and death" struggle for the unions. So menacing has become the situation that the convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opens its sessions in Montreal, June 7, is expected to deliver a ringing ultimatum to all interests warring on trade unionism and to call on organized labor everywhere to resist the assault on its principle.

"We have evidence of a well laid conspiracy among certain big employers to return to pre-war conditions in dealing with labor and by every means in their power to crush the unions," E. C. Davidson, general secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Machinists, declared here today.

"The real purpose of the 'open shop' campaign is to put the unions out of business, reduce wages and take away the eight hour day."

In cities where anti-union employers dominate and are looking out union men organized labor is retaliating by boycotting those places and using every legitimate means to keep labor away. The Colorado state federation of labor has issued warning to union men throughout the country to stay away from Colorado where it is claimed commercial organizations are working to enforce the open shop, and ban union men.

PROFITEERING NOW CHARGED TO SUGAR DEALERS IN EAST

New York, May 29.—Several indictments charging profiteering in sugar were returned in federal court here. One indictment charged the Economy Wholesale Grocers company and Abraham Gladstone of Chicago with having sold in New York on May 1 50,600 pounds at 24 cents. They are alleged to have bought the sugar for 15 1/2 cents.

Another indictment charged D. O. Netter of New York and Morris Spirt of Waterbury, Conn., with having sold at 26 1/2 cents a pound 52,000 pounds of sugar which it was alleged cost them less than 19 cents.

Armin W. Riley, special assistant to Attorney General Palmer, in charge of the profiteering investigation here, announced that after a conference with prominent hat dealers he had obtained their promise to slash straw hat prices immediately. He said he had convinced them they were making too great profits.

POLES CAPTURE 550 BOLSHEVIK PRISONERS IN STIFF FIGHTING

Violent Encounters In Progress Along Dvina River.

RUSSIANS REPULSED

Lloyd George Meets Soviet Trade Envoy Next Week.

London, May 29.—The capture of 550 Russian bolshevik prisoners and the repulse of attacks on the lower end of the Russo-Polish battle front were reported in a polish war office communique telegraphed from Warsaw today. The Poles are counter attacking between the Dvina river and the Pripiet marshes. Between the Dnieper and Dniester rivers a Russian assault against the Polish right flank was repulsed. The Poles captured a village north of Kiev. Four hundred of the Russian prisoners, taken north of Dobricz, were cossacks.

London, May 29.—Violent fighting is in progress along the Dvina river (on the northern end of the bolshevik-Polish battle front), but all of the bolshevik attacks have been repulsed, said a Polish war office communication telegraphed to Warsaw today. It said that the struggle was especially severe near Ploszewicz.

London, May 29.—The first meeting between Premier Lloyd George and Gregory Krassin, the Russian bolshevik trade envoy, will take place early next week, it was learned today from an authoritative source. M. Krassin was silent on reports that he came to England empowered by the Moscow soviet to negotiate peace.

"I hope that the British and the Russians can come to an understanding," was the only statement the bolshevik emissary would make. According to the Daily Herald, the official organ of the labor party, the Russians will not bring any gold to London unless its safety is guaranteed. They promise that it will be used only for commercial payments. The Daily Herald says that British bankers want payments made at the pre-war price of gold which would mean considerable loss to the soviet.

GOMPERS AND ALLEN DEBATE MERITS OF INDUSTRIAL LAWS

New York, May 29.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas debated the merits of the recently enacted Kansas industrial court law and kindred subjects before a large audience in Carnegie hall. Judge Alton B. Parker of this city presided and introduced the speakers. Gompers upheld the rights of man to work or quit and said legislation to outlaw strikes "would make criminals of honest citizens."

SWITCHMEN WILL FIGHT TO DEATH

Chicago, May 29.—Outlawed by the regular labor unions and denied recognition by the United States labor board, insurgent railroad strikers have amalgamated their forces "to fight to the death," according to H. E. Reading, organizer and leader of the recent strike. The amalgamated organization, which has not been given a title, has a membership of 260,000 railroad employees, Reading said. He declared all of this number are now on strike. The amalgamation was made, he said, at a secret meeting here last week. "Our object is to gain return of our seniority rights," Reading added. "The men were willing to return some time ago if they had been given back their rights. But there was collusion between the brotherhoods and the railroads who wanted to break us. We are stronger than ever and growing."

Debs Formally Notified.

Atlanta, Ga., May 29.—In a small room at the Atlanta federal penitentiary and under the watchful eye of a guard, Eugene V. Debs, serving a 10-year term for violation of the espionage act, was formally notified today that the Socialist party has nominated him for president. Debs addressed the Socialist committee, accepting the nomination.

FRANCE TO HONOR AMERICAN DEAD WITH CEREMONY

Impressive Memorial Services Will Be Held Sunday.

WILSON ENTERS SPIRIT

Franco-American Services To Be Part of Day's Program.

Paris, May 29.—Impressive memorial services for the American soldier dead will be held throughout France, tomorrow, especially in the "battle towns" where the United States troops distinguished themselves in action against the Germans.

The weather forecast is for rain but the elaborate programs will be carried out despite bad weather.

President Wilson will participate in spirit in the memorial day observance in France. Hugh C. Wallace, the American Ambassador, acting as the personal envoy of the president, will lay a wreath upon the statue of "The American Doughboy" in the Suresnes cemetery.

Marshall Petain, as the official representative of the French government will deliver an address during this ceremony. Colonel Francis Drake, of the Paris Post, of the American Legion, will head a delegation that will place a wreath upon the statue of Lafayette in the Picpus cemetery.

PEASANTS PARTICIPATE
In addition to the official ceremonies thousands of peasant French families acting independently of the organized program will put their tribute of flowers upon graves of fallen Americans in the rural districts. Children will largely predominate here.

Major General John F. O'Ryan has arrived from London and will be the chief speaker at the ceremony at Bony, where the American 27th division was in action, losing many brave men.

The American committees that have been preparing for memorial day have had considerable difficulty in convincing well meaning local French committees that lengthy luncheons and speeches, accompanied by wine toasting, was no part of the American memorial day custom.

Combined Franco-American services will be held at a number of places on the old Aisne-Marne battlefield where the Americans took a leading part in the final campaign of the war. Ceremonies will be held in the historic Belleau wood, where the United States marines checked the last wild charge of the Germans in the road to Paris; at Chateau-Thierry and Fere-en-Tardenois. Equally impressive services will be held in the battle zone north of Verdun and in the old St. Mihiel sector.

The solitary grave of Captain Quentin Roosevelt, son of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in the Marne battlefield, will be decorated with flowers by members of the American aviation corps.

GARY ACCUSES LABOR OF PROGRAM

New York May 29.—A small minority of the population "concealing their designs under the word 'labor'" are threatening to undermine the constitution, E. H. Gary, president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, declared in addressing the annual meeting here.

"The present so-called labor strikes, involving riot and injury to property and person, are instigated as a part of the campaign to disturb and demoralize the economic conditions of the country," Gary said. "In other lands very serious results have been accomplished by the same means which have been employed here."

Gary said the "small minority" hope to attract a majority of the people and thus enable them to obtain "one legislative act after another until the constitution shall be undermined and the whole structure destroyed." "These men," he continued, "already have secured some legislation which is wrongfully discriminating."

Gary declared the safe and natural remedy for the "perils" are to be found only in unity of purpose and effort on the part of the whole crew on our ship of state; an undivided loyalty to the principles of our constitution, and all the laws which are passed in conformity to it.

UNION LABOR TO FIGHT ALLEGED CAPITOL SCHEME

Raise Gigantic Fund For Defense Of Trade Unions.

"OPEN SHOP" TALKED

Claim Well Laid Conspiracy ... To Defeat Labor Unions.

Washington, May 29.—Union labor is raising a gigantic defense fund to fight what is claims is a nation wide campaign by big employers to smash the trade union movement.

Life And Death Struggle.

Labor leaders here say its the beginning of a "life and death" struggle for the unions. So menacing has become the situation that the convention of the American Federation of labor, which opens its sessions in Montreal, June 7, is expected to deliver a ringing ultimatum to all interests warring on trade unionism and to call on organized labor everywhere to resist the assault on its principle.

"We have evidence of a well laid conspiracy among certain big employers to return to pre-war conditions in dealing with labor and by every means in their power to crush the unions," E. C. Davidson, general secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Machinists, declared here today.

"The real purpose of the 'open shop' campaign is to put the unions out of business, reduce wages and take away the eight hour day."

In cities where anti-union employers dominate and are locking out union men organized labor is retaliating by boycotting those places and using every legitimate means to keep labor away. The Colorado state federation of labor has issued warning to union men throughout the country to stay away from Colorado where it is claimed commercial organizations are working to enforce the open shop, and ban union men.

PROFITEERING NOW CHARGED TO SUGAR DEALERS IN EAST

New York, May 29.—Several indictments charging profiteering in sugar were returned in federal court here. One indictment charged the Economy Wholesale Grocers company and Abraham Gladstone of Chicago with having sold in New York on May 1 50,600 pounds at 24 cents. They are alleged to have bought the sugar for 15 1/2 cents.

Another indictment charged D. O. Netter of New York and Morris Spirt of Waterbury, Conn., with having sold at 26 1/2 cents a pound 52,000 pounds of sugar which it was alleged cost them less than 19 cents.

Armin W. Riley, special assistant to Attorney General Palmer, in charge of the profiteering investigation here, announced that after a conference with prominent hat dealers he had obtained their promise to slash straw hat prices immediately. He said he had convinced them they were making too great profits.

POLES CAPTURE 550 BOLSHEVIK PRISONERS IN STIFF FIGHTING

Violent Encounters In Progress Along Dvina River.

RUSSIANS REPULSED

Lloyd George Meets Soviet Trade Envoy Next Week.

London, May 29.—The capture of 550 Russian bolshevik prisoners and the repulse of attacks on the lower end of the Russo-Polish battle front were reported in a polish war office communique telegraphed from Warsaw today. The Poles are counter attacking between the Dvina river and the Pripiet marshes. Between the Dniester and Dnieper rivers a Russian assault against the Polish right flank was repulsed. The Poles captured a village north of Kieff. Four hundred of the Russian prisoners, taken north of Dobriez, were cossacks.

London, May 29.—Violent fighting is in progress along the Dvina river (on the northern end of the Bolshevik-Polish battle front), but all of the Bolshevik attacks have been repulsed, said a Polish war office communication telegraphed to Warsaw today. It said that the struggle was especially severe near Plossesowicz.

London, May 29.—The first meeting between Premier Lloyd George and Gregory Krassin, the Russian bolshevik trade envoy, will take place early next week, it was learned today from an authoritative source. M. Krassin was silent on reports that he came to England empowered by the Moscow soviet to negotiate peace.

"I hope that the British and the Russians can come to an understanding," was the only statement the bolshevik emissary would make.

According to the Daily Herald, the official organ of the labor party, the Russians will not bring any gold to London unless its safety is guaranteed. They promise that it will be used only for commercial payments. The Daily Herald says that British bankers want payments made at the pre-war price of gold which would mean considerable loss to the soviet.

GOMPERS AND ALLEN DEBATE MERITS OF INDUSTRIAL LAWS

New York, May 29.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas debated the merits of the recently enacted Kansas industrial court law and kindred subjects before a large audience in Carnegie hall. Judge Alton B. Parker of this city presided and introduced the speakers. Gompers upheld the rights of man to work or quit and said legislation to outlaw strikes "would make criminals of honest citizens."

Governor Allen defended the Kansas industrial court, building his argument on the premise that "the safety of the public is the supreme law."

"We have not forbidden to any man the right to quit work," he asserted. "We merely have taken away from a man to quit work."

SWITCHMEN WILL FIGHT TO DEATH

Chicago, May 29.—Outlawed by the regular labor unions and denied recognition by the United States labor board, insurgent railroad strikers have amalgamated their forces "to fight to the death," according to H. E. Reading, organizer and leader of the recent strike. The amalgamated organization, which has not been given a title, has a membership of 260,000 railroad employes, Reading said. He declared all of this number are now on strike. The amalgamation was made, he said, at a secret meeting here last week. "Our object is to gain return of our seniority rights," Reading added. "The men were willing to return some time ago if they had been given back their rights. But there was collusion between the brotherhoods and the railroads who wanted to break us. We are stronger than ever and growing."

Debs Formally Notified.

Atlanta, Ga., May 29.—In a small room at the Atlanta federal penitentiary and under the watchful eye of a guard, Eugene V. Debs, serving a 10-year term for violation of the espionage act, was formally notified today that the Socialist party has nominated him for president. Debs addressed the Socialist committee, accepting the nomination.

FRANCE TO HONOR AMERICAN DEAD WITH CEREMONY

Impressive Memorial Services Will Be Held Sunday.

WILSON ENTERS SPIRIT

Franco-American Services To Be Part of Day's Program.

Paris, May 29.—Impressive memorial services for the American soldier dead will be held throughout France, tomorrow, especially in the "battle towns" where the United States troops distinguished themselves in action against the Germans.

The weather forecast is for rain but the elaborate programs will be carried out despite bad weather.

President Wilson will participate in spirit in the memorial day observance in France. Hugh C. Wallace, the American Ambassador acting as the personal envoy of the president, will lay a wreath upon the statue of "the American doughboy" in the Suresnes cemetery. Marshall Petain, as the official representative of the French government will deliver an address during this ceremony.

Colonel Francis Drake, of the Paris Post, of the American Legion, will head a delegation that will place a wreath upon the statue of Lafayette in the Picpus cemetery.

PEASANTS PARTICIPATE

In addition to the official ceremonies thousands of peasant French families, acting independently of the organized program, will put their tribute of flowers upon graves of fallen Americans in the rural districts.

Children will largely predominate here.

Major General John F. O'Ryan has arrived from London and will be the chief speaker at the ceremony at Bony, where the American 27th division was in action losing many brave men.

The American committees that have been preparing for memorial day have had considerable difficulty in convincing well meaning local French committees that lengthy luncheons and speeches, accompanied by wine toasting, was no part of the American memorial day custom.

Combined Franco-American services will be held at a number of places on the old Aisne-Marne battlefield where the Americans took a leading part in the final campaign of the war. Ceremonies will be held in the historic Belleau wood, where the United States marines checked the last wild lunge of the Germans in the road to a Paris. At Chateau-Thierry and Fere-en-Tardenois. Equally impressive services will be held in the battle zone north of Verdun and in the old St. Mihiel sector.

The solitary grave of Captain Quentin Roosevelt, son of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in the Marne battle, will be decorated with flowers by members of the American aviation corps.

GARY ACCUSES LABOR OF PROGRAM

New York May 29.—A small minority of the population "concealing their designs under the word 'labor'" are threatening to undermine the constitution, E. H. Gary, president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, declared in addressing the annual meeting here.

"The present so-called labor strikes, involving riot and injury to property and person, are instigated as a part of the campaign to disturb and demoralize the economic conditions of the country," Gary said. "In other lands very serious results have been accomplished by the same means which have been employed here."

Gary said the "small minority" hope to attract a majority of the people and thus enable them to obtain "one legislative act after another until the constitution shall be undermined and the whole structure destroyed." "These men," he continued "already have secured some legislation which is wrongfully discriminatory."

Gary declared the safe and natural remedy for the "perils" are to be found only in unity of purpose and effort on the part of the whole crew on our ship of state; an undivided loyalty to the principles of our constitution, and all the laws which are passed in conformity to it.

JUNIORS FETE SENIORS IN ANNUAL RECEPTION

Brilliantly feted were the members of the class of 1920 of Central High School at the crowning social event of the school year, the annual reception tendered the seniors by the Juniors, which was held Friday night at the Knights of Pythias Hall.

In beauty of decoration seldom has a class surpassed the efforts of the class of 1921 in arranging for the annual affair. The guests, the Seniors, members of the faculty and of the Board of Education were received into a veritable bower of loveliness, the purple and gold of the seniors being used in the decorations in the big dance hall, which was used as the reception hall.

Purple and gold streamers almost hid the walls an ceiling, and toned the glare of the lights. In the center a running fountain was surrounded by green potted plants, and the strains of music floated from a purple and gold canopy in one corner. In another corner, three sophomore girls, Misses Alice Clemmer, Louise Baldner and Velma Huston, served punch from a purple and gold refreshment booth.

In the receiving line were the officers of the Junior class. John Moore, president, Miss Martha Finley, Miss Eula Custis, vice president, Richard Considine, William LeSourd, treasurer, Miss Gertrude Jones, Miss Olivia Cost, secretary, and John Wolford. The Wilberforce orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Practically 160 people were seated at the attractively dressed tables which were spread in the lodge room of the order. Here the Junior colors, green and white, predominated in the decorations. Green and white streamers replaced those of purple and gold in this room, and green candles in crystal holders decorated the tables.

The following menu was served: Freshmen girls acting as waitresses: Fruit glace, petit pate de poulet, croquettes des ignames, petits pois au creme, petit pain, buerre, jus de citron glace, salad de concombre, pain a cacheter, creme glacee gateau, menth polivre.

Richard Considine of the Junior Class acted as Toastmaster, and the flower idea was carried out in the toasts given. Those who angerved to toasts were: "Goldenrod," Superintendent of Schools, C. A. Waltz; "Poppy," H. S. LeSourd, of the Board of Education; "White Rose," Harold Ray; "Heliotrope and Daffodil," Richard Sayre; "Gloriosa Superba," Mr. Hiers, of the school faculty; "Violet," V.M. Coffin, of the faculty; "Bleeding Hearts," Miss Margaret Davis; "For-Get-Me-Not," Miss Thelma Powell.

A reading, "In the Butcher Shop," was given by Miss Reva Spahr. "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was the title of the song sung by the quartette consisting of Misses Reba Anders, and Gertrude Jones and Forrest Casad and Tom Kennedy and Miss Eula Custis sang the solo, "I'd Build a Word in the Heart of a Rose."

Following the program dancing was enjoyed in the reception hall. The arrangements showed elaborate preparation for the affair, most of which rested upon the dinner committee, consisting of Olivia Cost, chairman, and Ruth Whittington and Reba Anders, and the decoration committee which consisted of John William Jobe, John Moore, Kenneth Hudson, Martha Finley, Mary Birch, John Wolford and Clark Lackey.

NEGLECTED COUGHS BRING REGRET

No one can afford to neglect a cough or cold. Neglect often causes serious results. The best time to doctor is when the first indications of a cough or cold appears. Coughing weakens the delicate membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This makes a fertile field for the development of germs. The cold, grip, tonsillitis, or influenza germ should be killed before they have time to get imbedded into this delicate membrane. For 50 cents you can get three ounces of Glando Pine. Mix this with enough syrup or honey to make a pint and you have a safe, sure and reliable remedy to use. It takes hold of a cough in a hurry. The first dose opens the air cells and makes you breathe deep and easy. It strengthens the membranes and destroys the cold, grip or tonsillitis germs before they begin to develop. Glando Pine is easily prepared. Directions, accompany each bottle. It tastes well and can be given to young children.

Don't be careless, but begin today to safeguard yourself against epidemics of coughs, colds, grip or influenza. Once you have used Glando Pine you will understand why people who have used it, always keep it in their homes. A dependable remedy at hand means a great deal to any family. Remember the name Glando Pine. You can get it of your druggist or it will be sent you by The Glando-Aid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CUTICURA HEALS SON'S RINGWORM

On Face and Wrist. Skin Sore. Itched and Burned.

"My son had ringworms on his face and wrist. They started on the side of his face about the size of a dime and would get larger, and kept spreading. The skin was sore and itched and would itch and burn."

"I tried different things which did not help, then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. When I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment he was healed." Mrs. S. F. Hutchinson, Box 198, Floodwood, Minn.

These fragrant emollients are all you need for all toilet purposes.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. X, Malden, Mass." Soap 5c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Talcum 3c. Cuticura Soap shaver without soap.

With 63 members in the class of 1920 which will be graduated this year, and 73 members in the Junior class, the affair was the largest attended of any previous Junior reception, and was a fitting climax to the season's gayeties at the high school.

RHEUMATISM IS A BLOOD DISEASE

INTERNAL TREATMENT IS VERY NECESSARY

Authorities admit that rheumatism is one of three or four diseases of the human family difficult to conquer. The average practitioner, when consulted concerning Chronic Rheumatism, suggests restricted diet, possibly mineral springs and medical treatment. Sometimes one or all of these will give relief. More frequently they will not.

While the cause of rheumatism is doubtful, yet it is believed that this painful disease is due to lactic acid in the blood. Certain it is that the suffering, and eventually deformity, are caused by some accumulation of poisons in the blood. Therefore, the only possible way to get relief is to take an internal treatment that purifies the blood.

Prescription C-2223 stands above all other remedies as a blood purifier of great merit. It eliminates the acid poisons in blood which accumulate around the joints, cause so much pain, and if neglected result in deformity. This prescription changes diseased conditions into conditions of health because it removes the cause of the trouble by purifying the blood.

To assist Prescription C-2223 in throwing off the poisons, the liver should be made active and the bowels regulated. There is nothing better than 2223 Liver Pills. One is a dose and only three need be taken a week. They do not nauseate or grip. The manufacturers are so sure that Prescription C-2223 will relieve you, that they agree to refund $3.00 if two $1.50 bottles do not give satisfactory benefit.

If your druggist won't supply you, send $1.75 for one bottle of Prescription C-2223 and a box of Pills. Write Dept. 122, 2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., for literature, 1920 Almanac and sample of Pills.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive--Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same. Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

VAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy--Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph B. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue--if you are not in better health--if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you. Seven a day for seven days--Wonderful results.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sealed proposals for furnishing all labor and materials necessary for erecting a wash water tank and tower will be received by the City Auditor of Xenia, Ohio, until 12 o'clock noon on TUESDAY, the 15th day of June, 1920, in accordance with the plans and specifications drawn by Philip Burgess, Engineer, under date of April 1920, and on file with the City Manager of the City of Xenia, Ohio. Proposals shall be addressed to the City Auditor, Xenia, Ohio, and shall be marked "Proposal for Wash Water Tank and Tower."

The work to be done includes the furnishing of all labor and materials necessary to furnish and construct complete foundations furnished by the City of Xenia, a tower and water tank of 20,000 gallons capacity, the bottom of said tank to be 25 feet above the top of the foundations. Prospective bidders may obtain a copy of the specifications and plans from the office of the City Manager of the City of Xenia, or Burgess & Niple, Engineers, Columbus, Ohio. Each proposal shall contain the name of each person, firm or corporation interested in the same and the address of the person, firm, the president or secretary of the firm or corporation bidding. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of ten per cent of the amount of the bid, payable to the City of Xenia, Ohio. This check shall be forfeited if the bidder fails to execute the contract and furnish the required bond within ten days after having received notice of the award; otherwise the check will be returned to the bidder.

A bond in the sum of fifty per cent with satisfactory sureties will be required for the faithful performance of the work.

Informalities will be waived at the option of the City, which reserves the right to reject any and all bids, for either a wooden or steel tank.

Detailed plans and specifications of the proposed equipment in triplicate shall accompany each bid.

Dated May 28th, 1920.

The G. H. Shartzler Co. Offers a Splendid Investment

In order to better handle the needs of this rapidly growing business and to meet the greatly increased demand for homes and home sites, this company offers subject to prior sale eighty-four thousand, five hundred ($84,500) common stock. Because of the splendid opportunity for an A-1 investment—coupled with the fact that this institution's facilities to supply Dayton's needs for homes is of supreme importance to every loyal and public spirited Daytonian, it is advisable to act quickly and secure some of this common stock. We repeat that not alone because of the splendid investment offered, for this common stock has ample equity and large earnings but because of Dayton's shortage of homes here is an opportunity to do double duty.

Seize this opportunity for an A-1 investment and at the same time help Dayton's progressive institution to be of greater assistance in the development of Greater Dayton by relieving this serious situation.

High rents, the shortage of rental property and houses and the growing realization by people of the importance of home owning have greatly increased the demand for good home property. The purpose of this issue is to furnish the working capital to take advantage of this enlarged opportunity and to finance developments necessary to meet the increased demand for homes.

It is also desired to put into effect plans long contemplated, under which this company may purchase a site to erect offices and a modern well equipped warehouse so that its business will all radiate from one central point. The great saving and efficiency in operations which will be affected upon completion of this project is very evident.

The G. H. Shartzler Co., the present corporation and the predecessor which preceded it has been in existence eight years. Eight years of constant growth this Company is one tried out and found not wanting. Its future holds out radiant hopes.

All legal matters pertaining to this issue have been approved by James and Coolidge, attorneys, Dayton, Ohio. The Company's books have been audited and certified to by Louis G. Battelle, certified public accountant.

KREMER TO OPEN DEM CONVENTION

J. Bruce Kremer.

J. Bruce Kremer of Butte, Mont., will call the Democratic national convention to order at San Francisco, June 28. Mr. Kremer is first vice chairman of the Democratic national committee. He was selected, according to an announcement by the Democratic national committee, because it was thought fitting that a western man should open the first convention of the party to be held west of the Rocky mountains.

Mrs. C. H. Kyle and Miss Ruth Kyle, who spent a week in Columbus, as the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson, have returned home.

The Spring Valley Decoration Day Exercises will be held Monday A. M. May 31st, at 9 o'clock. Address by Dr. B. R. McClellan. Spanish War veterans and World War veterans are asked to turn out in uniform and march with the G. A. R.'s. All patriotic people are asked to co-operate, bring flowers and machines to haul those who cannot march. Children asked to come and bring flowers. Line of march will start at 9 a. m. Speaking at cemetery.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sealed bids for furnishing all labor and material necessary for furnishing centrifugal pumps and motors, will be received by the City Auditor of the City of Xenia, Ohio, until 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, the 15th day of June, 1920, proposals shall be addressed to the City Auditor, Xenia, Ohio, and shall be marked "Proposal for furnishing centrifugal pumps and motors for the City of Xenia, Ohio."

The work to be done comprises the following:

Item 1. The furnishing of all labor and material necessary to provide complete one centrifugal pump and electric motor with a capacity of 1,200 gallons per minute against a total head of 6 ft.

Item 2. The furnishing of all labor and material necessary to provide complete two centrifugal pumps each with capacity of 700 gals. per minute against a total head of 300 feet.

Item 3. The furnishing of all labor and material necessary to provide complete two centrifugal pumps each with capacity of 700 gals. per minute against a total head of 40 feet.

The contractor shall provide in his proposal the guarantees which he is prepared to make for the combined efficiency of the several pumps and motors which he proposes to furnish. Each guarantee shall be based upon the electric power delivered to the motors and the work done by the pumps as determined by the quantity of water pumped and the total head against which it is lifted.

Specifications and plans may be had from Kenyon Riddle, City Manager, Xenia, Ohio, or Burgess & Niple, Engineers, Columbus, Ohio.

Each proposal shall contain the full name of each person firm or corporation interested in the same and the address of the person, firm or secretary of the firm or corporation bidding. Each bid shall be accompanied with a certified check to the amount of 10 per cent of the bid, payable to the City of Xenia, Ohio.

This check shall be forfeited if the bidder fails to enter into a contract and to furnish the required bond with the City of Xenia within ten (10) days after the date of the acceptance of the proposal in the event that the award is made to the said bidder. A bond in the sum of 50 per cent of the contract price, with satisfactory sureties will be required for the faithful performance of the work.

Bidders shall submit with their proposals duplicate plans showing in detail the pumps and motors which they propose to furnish. Such plans and specifications shall clearly and distinctly show the dimensions and the character and the workmanship of the proposed machinery.

The City of Xenia, Ohio, reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and to waive in formalities.

Dated this 28th day of May, 1920.
T. H. ZELL,
City Auditor, Xenia, Ohio.

He is survived by his widow and five children; Mrs. Chaney Wilson of south Solon, and four children at home. Funeral arrangements have not been made, but the burial will take place in Jeffersonville his former home.

SIX MONTHS I COULD NOT WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Me Strong and Able to Work—I Recommend It To All My Friends.

Bayonne, N. J. — "I had pains in back and legs so that I could not stand caused by female trouble. I felt so tired all the time, had bad headaches, and for six months I could not work. I was treated by a physician and took other remedies but got no relief. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me now able to do my work. I cannot thank you enough and I recommend your medicine to my friends who are sick." — Mrs. SUSIE SACATANSKY, 2 East 17th St., Bayonne, N. J.

It must be admitted by every fair minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for over forty years, and today hold a record for such wonderful success as does Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sealed proposals for furnishing all labor and materials necessary for erecting and erecting a wash water tank and tower will be received by the City Auditor of Xenia, Ohio, until 12 o'clock noon on TUESDAY, the 15th day of June, 1920, in accordance with the plans and specifications drawn by Philip Burgess, Engineer, under date of April 1920, and on file with the City Manager of the City of Xenia, Ohio. Proposals shall be addressed to the City Auditor, Xenia, Ohio, and shall be marked "Proposal for Wash Water Tank and Tower."

The work to be done includes the furnishing of all labor and materials necessary to furnish and construct complete foundations furnished by the City of Xenia, a tower and water tank of 20,000 gallons capacity, the bottom of said tank to be 25 feet above the top of the foundations.

Prospective bidders may obtain a copy of the specifications and plans from the office of the City Manager of the City of Xenia, or Burgess & Niple, Engineers, Columbus, Ohio. Each proposal shall contain the name of each person, firm or corporation interested in the same and the address of the person, firm, the president or secretary of the firm or corporation bidding. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of ten per cent of the amount of the bid, payable to the City of Xenia, Ohio. This check shall be forfeited if the bidder fails to execute the contract and furnish the required bond within ten days after having received notice of the award; otherwise the check will be returned to the bidder.

A bond in the sum of fifty per cent with satisfactory sureties will be required for the faithful performance of the work.

Informalities will be waived at the option of the City, which reserves the right to reject any and all bids, for either a wooden or steel tank.

Detailed plans and specifications of the proposed equipment in triplicate shall accompany each bid.

Dated May 28th, 1920.

The G. H. Shartzler Co. Offers a Splendid Investment

In order to better handle the needs of this rapidly growing business and to meet the greatly increased demand for homes and home sites, this company offers subject to prior sale eighty-four thousand, five hundred ($84,500) common stock. Because of the splendid opportunity for an A-1 investment—coupled with the fact that this institution's facilities to supply Dayton's needs for homes is of supreme importance to every loyal and public spirited Daytonian, it is advisable to act quickly and secure some of this common stock. We repeat that not alone because of the splendid investment offered, for this common stock has ample equity and large earnings but because of Dayton's shortage of homes here is an opportunity to do double duty.

Seize this opportunity for an A-1 investment and at the same time help Dayton's progressive institution to be of greater assistance in the development of Greater Dayton by relieving this serious situation.

High rents, the shortage of rental property and houses and the growing realization by people of the importance of home owning have greatly increased the demand for good home property. The purpose of this issue is to furnish the working capital to take advantage of this enlarged opportunity and to finance developments necessary to meet the increased demand for homes.

It is also desired to put into effect plans long contemplated, under which this company may purchase a site to erect offices and a modern well equipped warehouse so that its business will all radiate from one central point. PATRIOTISM AND MEMORIAL DAY THOUGHTS.

There are some words which we utter glibly, without fully comprehending their significance. We wonder if "Patriotism" is one such. In its broadest sense, we usually understand it to be such a love of one's country that will impel us to risk our life in its defense. This is such a serious obligation that it must imply a personal, rather than an impersonal, love for the object. So it can only be a country worth loving that will incite us to ever risk life in its defense.

Have we such a country? The proper way of increasing the love we bear to our native country is to reside sometime in a foreign one. In nearly all cases this is such good patriotic medicine, that we come home glowing with fervor over the institutions of our blessed land. Yes, we have a country for whose life we are willing to risk our own.

And this has been emphasized in fact by the many thousands of dead patriots whose bones honor our National cemeteries, and are scattered widecast the land over. Have we forgotten them and their brave deeds? God forbid—and never will. This is what Memorial Day means. It testifies love of Patriotism.

But in the service and in the death of a soldier there comes in a peculiar element of relationship not found in other cases—that in that service and death he stood for us—the relation of substitution—and in the case of death, the feeling that "he died for me." There is nothing mythical in such a reflection, but rather in a general sense the statement of a fact—though alas how little appreciated by us. He stood in our place. He did what it was our duty to do.

Cicero called gratitude the mother of virtues, the most capital of all duties. He who receives a benefit should never forget the giver of same; and when he does, he is an ingrate. And of course, the greater the benefit, the greater should be our gratitude.

As the great Lincoln stood on the field of Gettysburg, surveying the mounds which covered the patriot dead, his feeling of Gratitude seemed almost too full for utterance, as he said: "It is for us, the living, to be dedicated here—to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to the cause for which they gave the full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain." God grant that this spirit of Gratitude, so beautifully expressed by Mr. Lincoln, may be in us all.

Under the providence of God we have risen to be a great Nation—so great that we are one of the world's Great Powers. As such we have just acted well our part in behalf of setting at right the infinite wrongs which another nation was inflicting on humanity. In this contest 100,000 of our brave young men gave their lives. A thought so tremendous as to stagger belief. But alas, 100,000 of our homes know but too well how true. The mortal remains of most of these patriots will rest "over there" where they gave the supreme sacrifice. But some are "coming home."

The bodies of ten women war nurses who died overseas on duty at army base hospitals, the first to be brought home, arrived at New York on Sunday on the transport Princess Matoika. On board also were the bodies of 418 soldiers who lost their lives in accidents or succumbed to wounds and disease.

These, too, have to be included in our Gratitude on Memorial Day. They too died for us.

God bless our native land;
Firm may she ever stand,
Trough storm and night,
When the wild tempests rave.
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our Country save
By Thy great Might.

God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

JIM FAULKNER, THE ENQUIRER'S FAMOUS CORRESPONDENT, THINKS HARDING'S CHANCES ARE GOOD.

By James W. Faulkner, Special Dispatch to the Enquirer, Chicago, Ill., May 26.—Fitting exactly the Presidential situation as it exists today by reason of the untoward and unsettling events at Washington, where the crafty and daring Senator Hiram W. Johnson appears to have driven his opponents into a slaughter corral, is the story of the two men who slept in a strange lodging house.

One was nudged and bidden to arise and open a door or window, so as to change the suffocating air. Returning to bed with his mission fulfilled, he was asked if he had observed the night outside.

"Aye," said he, "it's as black as ink and it smells of cheese." In the morning it was found that he had opened a pantry door. Murky the conditions are, beyond question, and, as for the odor, the country surprised by the revelations as to the cost of candidates, is providing that in unmistakable fashion.

There is utmost complacency in the Hoover headquarters—where Johnson's name is not honored—over conditions, and there is a growing hope that the alternate candidate from California soon will be in the first rank. It now is accepted in that quarter that Johnson has made himself "impossible" and that eventually his opposition will be helpful. But the conditions now are more favorable for Harding than for any of the others, a fact that the expert political observers are admitting freely.

There is no possible chance, it is announced, of mixing him up in the mess of campaign slush funds, and he absolutely is free from the antagonisms that have been engendered by the investigation. There will be much liniment needed after the convention, it is argued, and Harding will be the best emollient that the factions can obtain. With Wood eliminated, Ohio would be solid for him. It is his task now to demonstrate determined leadership in such fashion that the delegates will understand that their captain is a fighter and not a phrasemaker.

Circumstances make for a compromise candidate today. There may be a revulsion of feeling upon the disclosures at the capital, but there never will be a lessening of the antagonisms between the three leaders.

If the second-line candidates fail to hear the loud knocking that fortune is making upon their doors it will be their own fault.

EX-SOLDIERS IN UNIFORM MONDAY

It will be "hello buddy," and "where from buddy," and "wait 'til you get that shot buddy" on the streets of Xenia Monday.

For ex-service men over the county are planning to wear their uniforms on that day, in order to correctly carry out the Memorial Day spirit, and more fittingly participate in the parade to the graves of soldiers in Woodland cemetery.

Joseph P. Foody Post No. 95, of the American Legion has endorsed the plan of wearing the khaki for that day only and most of the members of that organization have signified their intention of getting back in the army clothes on that day. Not only Legion members but all ex-service men, whether they belong to any organization or not, are being urged to don the khaki for that day and it is understood that the majority of them feel that such action is their patriotic duty and that they will turn out in khaki for the Memorial Day parade.

RESIDENT OF PORT WILLIAM IS DEAD

Mrs. Lucy Fawcett Oglesbee, wife of Woodson Oglesbee died at 4:30 Saturday morning at her home in Port William, of heart trouble. She had been confined to her bed for several weeks, but her death was unexpected.

Mrs. Oglesbee is survived by her husband and two children, Walter Oglesbee of Detroit and Mrs. Clyde Abkhram of Clinton county. There are three stepsons, Charles Oglesbee of Spring Valley; Albert Oglesbee of Mississippi; and Jacob Oglesbee of Lumberton. Mrs. Ernest Beatty of Xenia is a granddaughter of the deceased.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Methodist church in Port William.

XENIA COUPLE WED AT HARVEYSBURG

The marriage of Miss Marie Jenner, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Jenner, of Home avenue, to Leslie L. Jordan, Xenia agent for The American Express Company, was celebrated Saturday afternoon at the residence of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Amos Cook, in Harveysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Crawford, of this city, motored to Harveysburg with the bridal pair, and were their attendants at the service. The Rev. Mr. Cook was selected to officiate as he was formerly pastor of the bride at the Friends church in Xenia.

The bride was wearing a tailored suit, and her flowers were white roses worn as a corsage bouquet. Mrs. Crawford also wore a tailored suit. Following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan went to Cincinnati for a few days. For a short time they will be at home with the bride's mother on Home avenue. Mrs. Jordan is the eldest daughter of Mrs. G. W. Jenner and an attractive and popular girl.

BID FAREWELL TO RECTOR AND WIFE.

Honoring Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Herron, who are about to go to Cambridge, where Dr. Herron becomes pastor of the Episcopal church, the congregation of Christ church gave a farewell reception in the parish house on Whiteman street, Friday night.

Women of the church arranged the affair, and a brief program was given in connection. Miss Hammil, teacher in elocution at the O. S. and S. O. Home schools gave several readings, and children of the parish appeared in charades. Both Dr. and Mrs. Herron spoke briefly, and Dr. Herron played a piano number. Dr. Herron is a musician of much ability and a composer of sacred music. A refreshment course of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee was served.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

COUGHED FOR 2 YEARS ORDERED TO DENVER

Doctor said she couldn't get well in Illinois, but she did.

"I had a very bad cough for 2 years, all the time, day and night. Could sleep but little. I tried everything but got no relief. Finally my doctor said he could do no more for me, that I had better go to Denver as I couldn't live in Illinois. Then I tried Milks Emulsion. From the very first, it helped me. By the time I had taken 15 bottles, my cough left me entirely. I have gained in strength and flesh and am now in perfect health."—Mrs. Alice M. Hunter, 182 No. Pearl St., Galesburg, Ill.

Build up your system and give it a chance to fight off disease. Milks Emulsion costs nothing to try and it has done the work for thousands of others.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickens the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

JAMESTOWN FARMER APPOINTED MEMBER HELD UNDER BOND OF MIAMI COMMITTEE

Herschell Clemmer, farmer of near Jamestown, O., was held to the grand jury under $2,500 bond on a charge of manslaughter when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Edgar Dangle in Dayton Friday afternoon. Bond was furnished by his father, W. B. Clemmer.

The charge grew out of an automobile accident on December 29, at which time William Nealon, 6, son of Thomas Nealon, 1533 Xenia avenue, was struck by the automobile driven by Clemmer, it is alleged. The accident occurred on Xenia avenue a short distance from the boy's home, and the lad died at Miami Valley hospital a short time after.

Dayton police say Clemmer was driving at a good rate of speed when the boy was struck. Coroner E. O. Willoughby rendered a verdict of death due to reckless driving at the time.

Miss Josephine Armstrong, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Harry Armstrong, of this city, and a student at Miami University, has been appointed a member of the committee to assist in the million-dollar endowment fund drive for Miami, in Greene county.

The committee is composed of Walter M. Nelly, Brookville, Montgomery county; Miriam Weber, Springfield, Clark county; Hubert Neth, Eaton, Preble county, and Miss Armstrong, who will represent Greene county.

PLEA FOR UNIFIED SERVICE AMONG RED CROSS CHAPTERS MADE AT COUNTY CONFERENCE WORKERS REPORT ON YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

"The Red Cross is not hampered by red tape. It is ready to give service at all times, regardless of creed, race or nationality."

"It is untouched by politics. We don't want any political party to use the Red Cross for its own selfish purposes," said J. M. Telleen, manager of the Lake Division of the American Red Cross speaking at the noon luncheon which featured the county Red Cross conference at the Chamber of Commerce, Friday.

Mr. Telleen said that he hoped rivalry among branch chapters of the Red Cross would disappear entirely, and that there would be a unified service among them. He declared also that the Red Cross would cooperate with any local existing organization for public service. The dollar and cents value of the home service, and the nursing as carried on by the Red Cross can be proven said the speaker and he also pointed out the peace time work of the organization in stemming epidemics.

Part of the dollar which you give here for your Red Cross is expended in fighting typhus fever in Central Europe. Without the war being waged against it at its breeding place we would have to fight the same battle against it over here, said the speaker.

Mr. Telleen also pointed out the manner in which the various divisions of the Red Cross home service dovetail, continuing and making more perfect their efficiency.

Miss Eva B. Sage, field director for this district for the Lake division said that within the last two years the objection that came from many rural counties to the effect that they did not need the Red Cross, had been very nearly silenced. She gave practical examples of the work of the Red Cross in agricultural districts, and said that in case of epidemic disease the home service section found more work to do in the country than in the city.

City Manager Kenyon Riddle, treasurer of the Greene County chapter, showed the condition of the chapter's finances. July 1, 1919, there were $13,827.70 on hand which was increased by $4,159.74 during the year, a total of $17,987.44. During the year $11,209.74 were expended, leaving $6,777.70 on hands, about enough to carry on the work for six or seven months.

The money expended during the year was divided as follows: Lake Division, $2,477.49; the nursing department, $2,469.71; the home service, $2,777.01; miscellaneous $389.02.

Mrs. Lulu B. Quisenberry, executive secretary of the home service section, rendered her annual report. It showed that 513 soldiers were cared for by the home service section. Vocational training was obtained for 40; bonus for twelve, amounting to $720; bonds in the amount of $414 for soldiers. Re-instated and converted insurance for soldiers obtained through the home service section amounted to $84,700; insurance paid as the result of death totaled $40,000. Back pay for soldiers amounting to $29,712 was obtained

ALTHOUGH RUINS STILL STAND AS WAR'S GRIM REMINDERS, BELGIUM RAPIDLY RECOVERS FROM EFFECTS OF CONFLICT

"The Red Cross is not hampered by red tape. It is ready to give service at all times, regardless of creed, race or nationality."

"It is untouched by politics. We don't want any political party to use the Red Cross for its own selfish purposes," said J. M. Telleen, manager of the Lake Division of The American Red Cross speaking at the noon luncheon which featured the county Red Cross conference at the Chamber of Commerce, Friday.

Mr. Telleen said that he hoped rivalry among branch chapters of the Red Cross would disappear entirely, and that there would be a unified service among them. He declared also that the Red Cross would cooperate with any local existing organization for public service. The dollar and cents value of the home service, and the nursing as carried on by the Red Cross can be proven said the speaker and he also pointed out the peace time work of the organization in stemming epidemics.

Part of the dollar which you give here for your Red Cross is expended in fighting typhus fever in Central Europe. Without the war being waged against it at its breeding place we would have to fight the same battle against it over here, said the speaker. Mr. Telleen also pointed out the manner in which the various divisions of the Red Cross home service dovetail, continuing and making more perfect their efficiency.

Miss Eva B. Sage, field director for this district for the Lake division said that within the last two years the objection that came from many rural counties to the effect that they did not need the Red Cross, had been very nearly silenced. She gave practical examples of the work of the Red Cross in agricultural districts, and said that in case of epidemic disease the home service section found more work to do in the country than in the city.

City Manager Kenyon Riddle, treasurer of the Greene County chapter, showed the condition of the chapter's finances. July 1, 1919, there were $13,827.70 on hand which was increased by $4,159.74 during the year, a total of $17,987.44. During the year $11,209.74 were expended, leaving $6,777.70 on hand, about enough to carry on the work for six or seven months.

The money expended during the year was divided as follows: Home Division, $2,477.49; the nursing department, $2,469.71; the home service section, $2,777.01; miscellaneous $3,890.28.

Mrs. Lulu B. Quisenberry, executive secretary of the home service section, rendered her annual report. It showed that 513 soldiers were cared for by the home service section. Vocational training was obtained for 40; bonus for twelve, amounting to $720; bonds in the amount of $414 for soldiers. Re-instated and converted insurance for soldiers obtained through the home service section amounted to $84,700; insurance paid as the result of death totalled $40,000. Back pay for soldiers amounting to $29,712 was obtained.

EXHIBITION OF PASTRY AND CULINARY ART SHOWN BY SCHOOLS

Cakes that would "melt in your mouth." Pies and biscuits the same, luscious pudding, delectable salads, savory meats.

But they weren't there to be eaten. They were simply to please the eye of the visitors to the exhibit held by the home economics and manual training departments of McKinley Junior high school, Friday afternoon.

Visitors thronged the hallways and rooms where the exhibits were placed and bright faced young girls who had made the good things served them hot chocolate and cakes.

Attractive dresses, aprons, kimono's, underwear, models of neatness, all the work of the pupils in the sewing classes, and made during class time were displayed in another room.

When one considered that little misses in the seventh and eighth grades, girls of 13 and 14 years of age had made the delicious dishes of food, and baked the cakes and pies and biscuits, and that their nimble fingers had cut out and fit and stitched the garments one thought that modern education had certainly commenced to give the proper status to the study of the time honored household arts.

Junior high boys, too, had their attractive and practical display of work in the industrial arts. Scientific drawings were exhibited and many small articles of furniture, testifying to the practicability of their training.

Teachers in the home economics and industrial arts department are, Mr. Leroy oWife, cookin'. Miss Charlotte aFrrrell sewing and A. J. Block, carpentry.

Pupils in the cooking class receive daily practical experience in that art, as they prepare and serve the noon luncheon for the school dining room. About 100 persons are served there every day. Five dishes are on the menu, a meat, a vegetable, a salad, sandwiches, and a desert. The meals are served at a price to cover cost.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When I was twenty-two I was very popular and went everywhere. One young man especially cared so much for me that it made him crazy when I went out with others. His love for me was so great that I promised to marry him.

After our marriage my husband was called out of town because of business and so we moved to another state. I am an only child and so I missed my parents terribly. My husband still loved me, but he had won me and that seemed all that was necessary. He never took me anywhere, but he did try to relieve my loneliness by giving me animals. He bought two Angora kittens because both were so cute he couldn't choose.

I stood life away from home two years and then I became so desperately homesick that my husband secured a position for my husband in our home town. I was certainly glad to get back. Only one thing is different: my husband is not like the husbands of my former friends. He is growing stouter every day and he is lazy, while their husbands are alert, young men.

When I am alone with my husband I love him. He loves me, too, and is very kind if it does not take any effort on his part. It hurts me to say so, but when I am out with our old friends I am ashamed to think I married the man I did. He is not a success in business or in anything because he will not exert himself.

Would you advise me to get a divorce before we have children?

UNHAPPY.
No, I would not advise divorce. It is evident that your husband loves you. Probably you love him, too. More than you realize. If divorced you would want him back again.

You can do much to help your husband and to inspire ambition. You and he ought to read at least two nights a week. I believe you would find books and articles on salesmanship a great help. Without a doubt they would interest him and at the same time teach him that certain habits stand in the way of success. Besides this, get him to go for walks or to exercise in some way.

Remember that no one is free from faults. To have the love of your husband is something to be envied. I agree with you, however, that laziness is hard to put up with.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Every spring I get brown and have freckles. What will whiten my skin?

FRECKLES.
A teaspoonful of the tincture of benzoin to an ounce of rosewater forms a well-known lotion, which is excellent for whitening the skin. Do not go into the sun without wearing a hat to shade your face. It is impossible to keep away tan and freckles if the face is exposed.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a married woman of twenty-two and have one little girl. My husband is very good to us in every way, but he will not take us anywhere. We can go as much as we like through the day, but we want him to go with us once in a while.

Can you tell me how to make him see the need of going with us once in a while? He is proud of us, I know, and thinks the world of baby. Also, I am very short. Would you advise me to be treated in a stretching machine?

SHORTY.
Your husband really ought to take you somewhere once in a while. Everyone has faults, however, and if this is your husband's there is little that can be done. Be thankful that he is kind to you in other ways.

Tell him that you would be happier if he went somewhere with you occasionally. He may want to please you enough to take you. I would not advise a stretching machine. The treatments would be expensive and would not increase your height enough to pay for the trouble.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

A "REGULAR FELLOW!" CHAPTER 24

Jack Pryor haunted the house, and together we ran around to the donkeys and matinee's. I often insisted we stop for Claudia or one of the girls, and we had jolly times. You see, Jack was a dear to take one out. Altho he had so much money, he never paraded it like some fellows do. He just seemed to take his money for granted, just as he did his horses, his cars, his home, and everything. There was nothing plebian in Jack's spending.

I recall he once called a fellow a "boulder" because he was so big, and bragged about how much he tipped the waiter.

One day Jack and I were out in his new car. It was a big touring car, and I had just said we were lost in it, and that we ought to call and ask one of the girls to go along. Just then I spied a poor, but spotlessly clean, woman standing on the curb. She had a large bundle, and evidently was waiting for the car.

"Take her instead, Jack," I said, never believing he would do it. At once he drove to the edge of the sidewalk. He got out, and spoke to the woman.

"I will take you home if you will let me," he said raising his hat. "The lady"—meaning me—"wishes you to have a ride."

The woman looked dazed as she climbed into the tonneau. She had not spoken. She laid her bundle upon the seat beside her, and Jack once more started the big car. We went up the drive until we reached Grant's Tomb. Then I turned and said:

"Where do you live? We aren't going much further."

"On Third Avenue, ma'am."

"But what street?"

"Thirty-fourth street, ma'am."

"But why didn't you say so. What did you get in for?" She had been standing on the uptown side of the street, and I had taken it for granted she was going that way.

"I ain't never sot in an auto before. I will walk back." She rose as if she were going to step out.

"Sit down. You'll get hurt," I exclaimed, while Jack turned the car.

"She's going to sot right where she is until she gets home," he said so low she couldn't hear, his eyes twinkling. And she did. He took that poor woman right up to her door with just as much of a flourish as he would had she been a queen. I never came so near loving Jack Pryor as I did that day.

I am telling the story to prove that his money hadn't entirely spoiled Jack—it hadn't made a 'boulder' of him.

Dad laughed heartily when I told him about it, and commended Jack.

"The boy has a good heart or he never would do things like that," he said, and Mother added,
